Texas Legislative Council reports prior to 2008 generally do not include results for third-party, independent, or write-in candidates. Beginning in 2008, results for all third-party and independent candidates are included, and the results for write-in candidates are summed and included as "write-in". Complete official results for all years are maintained by the office of the secretary of state.

Texas Legislative Council reports prior to 2008 generally do not include results for third-party, independent, or write-in candidates. Beginning in 2008, results for all third-party and independent candidates are included, and the results for write-in candidates are summed and included as "write-in". Complete official results for all years are maintained by the office of the secretary of state.

Texas Legislative Council reports prior to 2008 generally do not include results for third-party, independent, or write-in candidates. Beginning in 2008, results for all third-party and independent candidates are included, and the results for write-in candidates are summed and included as "write-in". Complete official results for all years are maintained by the office of the secretary of state.

Texas Legislative Council reports prior to 2008 generally do not include results for third-party, independent, or write-in candidates. Beginning in 2008, results for all third-party and independent candidates are included, and the results for write-in candidates are summed and included as "write-in". Complete official results for all years are maintained by the office of the secretary of state.

Texas Congressional Districts 1992-1994 Elections and 1996 Primary Elections

House Bill 1, 72nd Legislature, 2nd Called Session (1991)

30 Districts

In 1994, the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas, Vera v. Richards, struck down three districts (18, 29, and 30), but the decision was stayed pending appeal.

Elections were held under this plan in 1994. In June 1996, the U.S. Supreme Court, Bush v. Vera, affirmed the district court's decision.

The district court voided the results of the March 1996 primary and April runoff elections for the affected districts, Vera v. Bush.
